Council Comments:

Councilwoman Gearding:

- Not in attendance.

Councilman Honaker:

- Questioned if the issues with the sewer project on Route 9 have been resolved.

Mr. Vance explained how the design will involve three homes with individual pumps that will pump into a collection system, which will be owned by the Sanitation District.

Councilman Blankenship:

- Informed council that he has been riding with each police officer during day shifts and night shifts to see what their work involves and stated that it has been a great experience. He also encouraged others to ride along.

Councilman B. Jones:

- Thanked Aaron Keene and anyone else who help with the removal of a fallen tree on Mook Road.

Councilwoman V. Jones:

- Asked Mr. Vance if Mr. Arnold has taken care of the issues that were addressed in his letter regarding his development.

Mr. Vance advised he has cleaned up some area in the front and planted grass in the pond/detention area. The superintendent is going to stop by his office tomorrow to pick up a copy of the landscaping plan that planning and zoning approved. He indicated that he may modify it some. Mr. Vance informed him it was ok to do that but it has to be equal to or greater than the approved plan.

- Thanked Chief Williams for letting her come in and get introduced to the officers. She plans on meeting with Fire Chief Proffitt also.
